A proposition from G. H. Wilmot to furnish harmes for the patrol system went to the Committee on Property, as did proposals to furnish coal for the departments. The contract for furnishing hay for the departments was awarded to Fries Brothers. Among the civius and accounts ordered paid were the following: A. Vandenburg, supplies, $4: Butter worth L. Lewe, recuirs, $4.78; S. P. Bennett, coal, $50,00; T. Kinimusent, repairs, $15.45;

J. E. Furman & Co., supplies, $15.55; Dunies Salivan & Co., $460.17; Wolverine Chair Company, office work for patrol system, $275. The department pay rolls for August were referred to the Committee on Finance. The Committee on Men and Discipline reported adversely on the petition of J. Hunsberger, for relief in the matter of a judgment rendered against him for making an illegal arrest while a member of the police force, on the ground that he had ceased to be a member of the force by his own action. Patrolman Dennis Millaler was granted leave of absence for six days. Patroiman Frank Fee was assigned to duty as Trumt Officer. Thomas Rowell and A. D. Raynor were appointed patrol wagon drivers. The President stated that on behalf of the Board he had accepted an invitation from the Board of Public Works to participate in the ceremonies at the laying the corner stone of the City Hall. The Board decided to employ boys, about eighteen years of age, as signal officers of the patrol system, and to examine applicants at 3 clock next Saturday afternoon. Boys who have some knowledge of telegraphy will be

DEAR DOCTOR: For years I had been ifflicted with catarrh which had eventually terminated in bronchitis of a chronic form, and indeed by some physicians pronounced pulmonary consump tion. I had tried every remedy I could hear of and consulted all of our so-called best physicians. They treated me for over three years and finally pronounced my case incurable, and I was told I must Our prices on All Goods are die. Hearing of your wonderful success in the treatment of others I consulted you. You said you could cure me, which at the time seemed to good to be true. Allow me to say, however, that you have fulfilled your promise, for which accept my heartfelt thanks, and I am ready and willing at all times to satisfy inquiries of the same. Yours respectfully, Mss. M. L. Welling,

284 Canton street. Prof. Paine-Dear Sir:-I deem it pleasure and privilege to add my testi-mony to your new method of treating chronic diseases. I have been a sufferer for many years with the worst type of catarrh; have used all known remedies without receiving any benefit. Your new method acted like a charm, and I cheer fully recommend all like sufferers to avail themselves of your superior skill. Yours, Mmr. Gassette, 132 Porter Block.

Grand Rapids, Oct. 7, 1885. Prof. C. W. Paine, M. D.—It is indeed a pleasure to me to be able to add my testimony to the many thousands you already have. After being afflicted many years with a very bad type of bronchial catarrh, your new and superior method of treatment has caused me to feel like a new creature, and I recommend all who are similarly afflicted to avail themselves of your treatment. Truly yours, E. Hooley.
